[illegible]

10-21-81

Dear Alexa,
Our last year...
FINALLY!!! I hope we survive!! I'm looking forward to graduation, prom, and more
Saturday nights at SCANDALS!!!
It's been fun,
Take Care,
Anna

Dear Alexa,

It's really been great knowing you these past 3 years! I'm so glad that this is our last year - finally!! Then next year it's off to college!! Yippee!! We must keep in mind those Naval Academy dances, scandals, etc!!! Lots of love, Betsy ☺

Dear Elena,
They're saying they've been at Oakland for a long time (you longer than me)
we've had our days and nights but we've never been together. Somehow I always seemed to be involved with your death day. I wish now we're senior and we should get to know each other better. We had a circle time at Scandals so let's have more of them. We're my senior in high school now so let's love it up!

Love
Habi

Love
Alexa
get together & go there too - like good friends
more - like good friends
our own good friends
and our friends have again. Remember we will be together. I'm glad you're still here
and I'll be here too.

LUCIA DISANDRO

Lucia

A true Italian, Lucia has all the 'ingredients' needed for Vogue. With her variety of makeup and her fashionable clothes, we'll be sure to see her in the midst of the designer world. Lucia is a real thinker, and always manages to brighten up the class with her philosophical advice. She has a big heart and is a good listener, as most of us well know. Lucia's career plans include going to the Fashion Institute of Technology in the exciting city of New York. Arrividerchi, Lul

SARA VICTORIA DOYLE

Sara V. Doyle ☺

Sara is one of the two 'original' Oakcrest Seniors, and she has literally 'grown up' with the school. She has been involved in several plays, but is best known for her role as the "Juice Lady". Sara, who has participated in the AP Art class for the two years of its existence, specializes in portraits and figure drawings. She is seldom seen without her two "other halves"—Lucia and Julie. Sara is funny and spirited, and her big-heartedness often gave our class the sensitive touch it needed.

DENISE HOLLY GODREAU

Denise Godreau

Denise, an active member of the senior class, has displayed her talents by playing basketball and tennis as well as representing our class in Student Council. She is a great organizer and is always willing to lend a helping hand. Denise worked on the school newspaper, the Oakleaf, and was one of the photographers for this yearbook. It is a wonder that Denise's face never gets tired, since she has a perpetual smile! Denise loves children, is a terrific cook and plans to pursue a career as a legal secretary. Since Denise is a real "trooper", who gives 'her all', we know she will succeed!

JULIA MARIE CHRISTINE HAJJAR

Julie Hajjar

Julie, who comes to us from the Middle East, wishes to travel around the world and possibly become an ambassador someday. She loves history particularly because she is so interested in the different cultures of the world. Julie is a lot of fun, and is known by her unique laugh, purple mascara and her ambition to be on stage with Bruce Springsteen. LaRue, as she is more commonly known, is another deep thinker, and because of this quality, the Senior lounge would have seemed very empty without her daily insights. Julie, we wish you luck!

Worm—darlin' please don't fade away.—B.S.

Gina, the other 'original' Oakcrest Senior, has also contributed a great deal to the growth of our school. Gina helped organize the very first Mother's Day luncheon and she has participated in such things as student government (holding various class offices), managing the bookstore, and sports. She has played and coached teams both inside and outside of school. The yearbook would never have happened without Gina's faithful trips to get prints and film. Almost daily she would be seen 'bombing' out of the parking lot in her green Vega. Gina plans to become a P.E. teacher, and in the meantime she is working as a nurse's aid. Gina, good luck, we'll miss you.

Mary, otherwise known as Einstein, has never gone home empty-handed from an Oakcrest awards ceremony. She leads the class with her "A" average, which means there's stiff competition to get a chance to study with her before a test! Mary is a capable and enthusiastic artist, and she has been a diligent AP Art student for both her junior and senior years. She never, never quits, and can be "dubbed" a thoroughbred "plugger". One major indication of Mary's stamina and strong will was when she ran the entire Boston Marathon in 1980!! We know Mary will make the most of college and her life!

"Always dream and shoot higher that you can reach. Don't bother just to be better than your contemporaries and predecessors. Try to be better than yourself."

Leslie is your classic all time 'nice person'. She is always fun to be around and a true mediator. She has a quick wit and is rarely seen without a big smile. She's a lovely girl who somehow acquired the nickname of "Pig-face", and true to her amiable character, she doesn't even mind it! Leslie will be forever famous for her athletic ability, particularly her "wicked" long shots in basketball!! Leslie will be going to the University of West Virginia and we know she'll do well there also.

"The language of friendship is not words, but meaning."

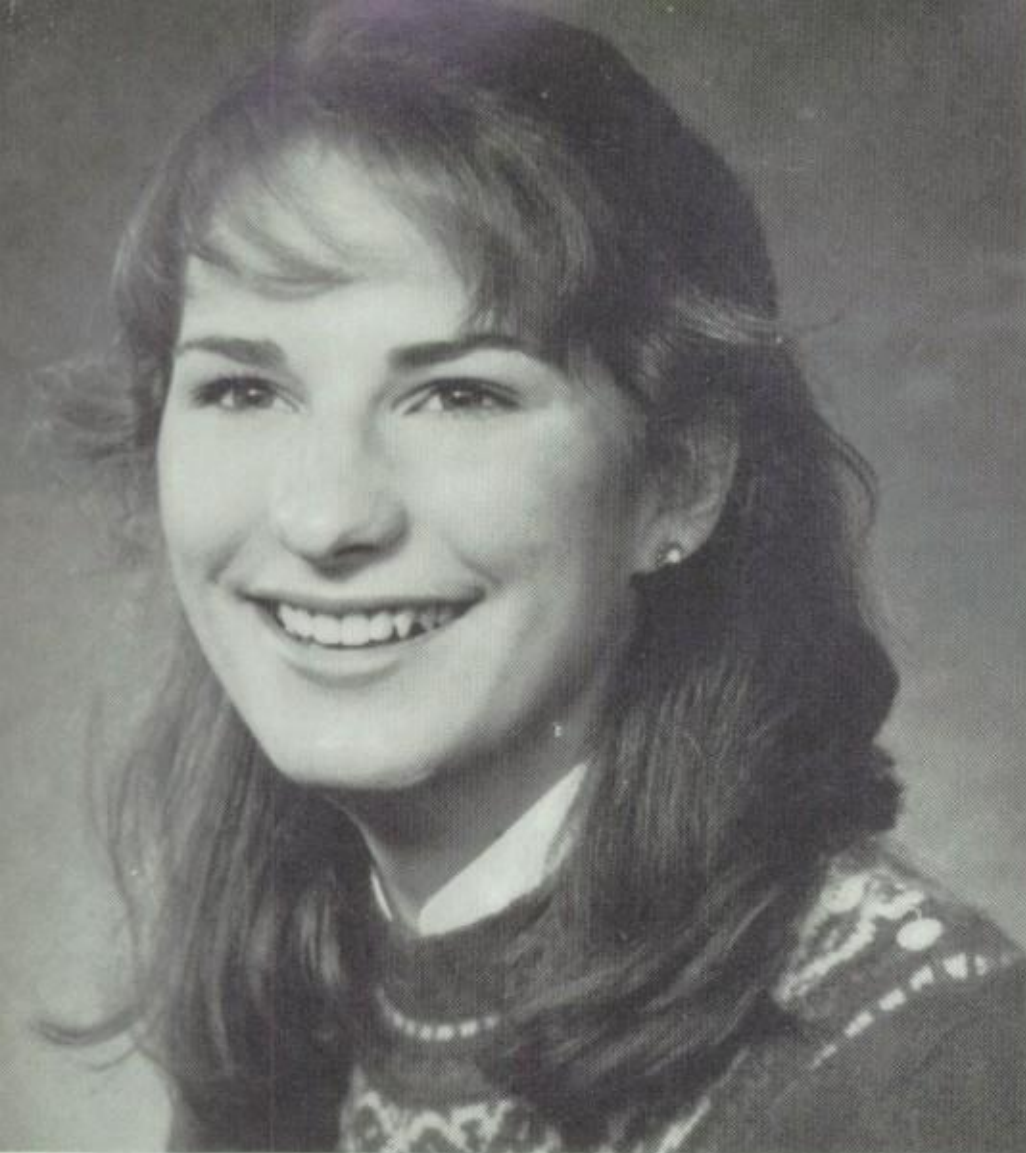

RENÉE LEE HOLLEMAN

Renée L. Holleman

Renée may be somewhat famous already for being the 'covergirl' on the Oakcrest brochure. Everyday she arrives via Nassar, and, as our English class can tell you, Renée shows great potential as a Shakespearean actress. Renée is interested in fashion and has held numerous positions in clothing stores, as well as having had some modeling experience. Renée wishes to obtain a BA in Fashion merchandising and we know she'll have a bright future.

MAGDALENE MARIE KOBYLINSKI

Magdalene Kobylinski

Magda, perhaps one of the most diplomatic members of our class, has a quick wit and lively personality. She is one of the few people we know who can miss "umpteen" days of school and still pass every subject. Magda has represented our class in Student Council and has also led our basketball team to many a victory. Magda is a very active girl, and very rarely, (if ever), slows down. She is looking forward to a career in nursing and plans to go to Boston College. Although she only came to Oakcrest in her Junior year, Magda has made a real impact on our class, and we will miss her.

Dina is an active member of our Senior class. She participated in the production of the Oakleaf and the Yearbook. She served on Student Council and played tennis. Also, she was a faithful scorekeeper for the basketball team. Dina is responsible, hardworking, congenial, and dynamic. Her cheerful and caring personality is seen in her love for children. Dina plans to return to Portugal, her native country, and pursue a career in computer programming. We wish her the best of luck!

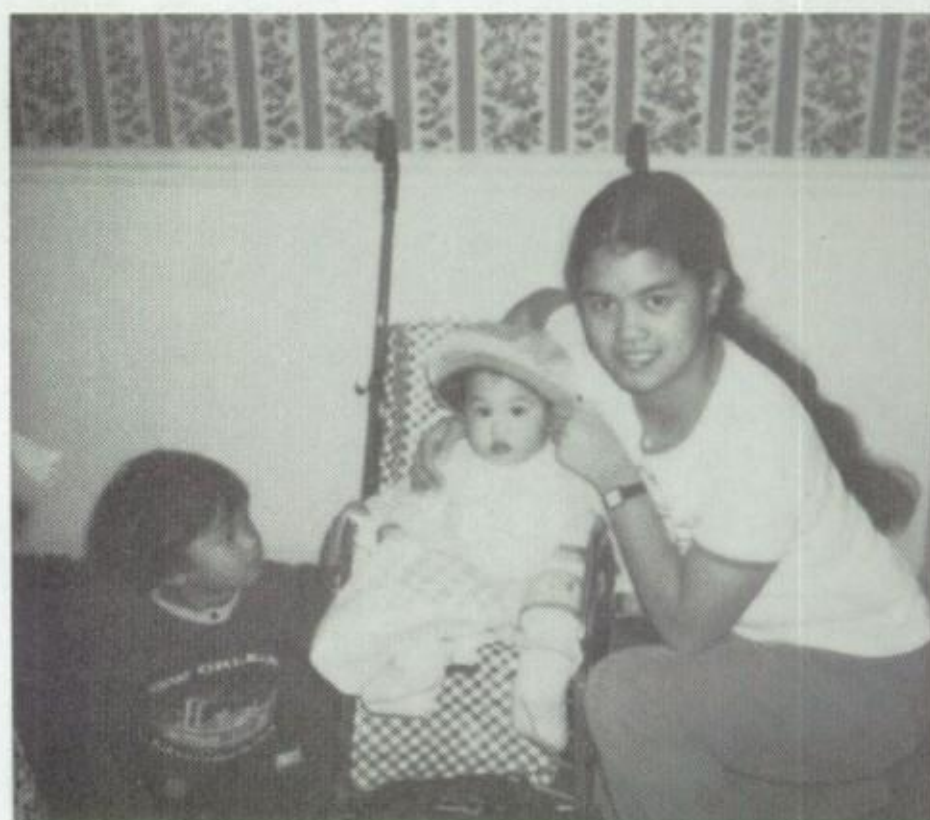

LOURDES MAPA

Lourdes Mapa

Lourdes, who adds to the list of our international students, comes to us from the Philippines. She is the oldest of a big family, loves children and enjoys preparing exotic desserts. Lourdes came to Oakcrest in her junior year and brought with her a quiet and valuable composure that added to the overall personality of the class. She has a flair for creative writing in French as well as in English. The class has benefited from knowing Lourdes, and wishes her the best of luck in the future.

We wouldn't be surprised to see Marchette become the first woman President of the United States. Marchette is known throughout the school for her outstanding oratorical ability, and will be especially remembered for her recitation of "The Creation" in the 1981 Variety Show. Marchette is usually the first to lend her hand and her spirit to the various Oakcrest activities. She is a diligent worker and can usually be found planning for Student Council meetings, writing a newspaper article, doing homework or rehearsing for a play. Marchette is a truly generous person who not only gives her time, but gives herself to those who are in need. Surely she will make as great a contribution to the world as she has made to our class.

Patty is the Argentinian of the class, and she brightens up the day with her big smile and cheery personality. Patty has a keen eye for fashion, and is a very sharp dresser. Patty is an avid Guillermo Vilas fan, and enjoys horseback riding, soccer and tennis. She plans to return to Argentina this summer and will pursue a career in Commercial Art and Design. Good Luck, Patty, we'll miss you.

Renée has the reputation of having the best sense of humor in our class. She is very entertaining, creative and always pleasant. Her lively participation in lab experiments has earned her the nickname, "The Great Chemist." Renée was active in athletics and played on the soccer, basketball and softball teams. All of us will miss Renée and her quick 'comebacks' that always added spice to our discussions. We really wish her luck in the future.

KRISTIN ANN YOUNG

Kristin Ann Young

Kristin has given our class a "sporting spirit," having participated in all major sports since her arrival in 10th grade. As a sophomore and a junior she received the Athlete of the Year Award for her all-around performance. Not only is Kristin a "super athlete" but she is also a "super bubble-yum chewer." As Editor of "Crescens" and as a class organizer, we'll not forget her reminders for meetings, senior page pictures, and the prodding for our $1.70 for yearbook patrons. Soon Kristin and her family will be moving to Buffalo, New York and there she will study for a future career in the field of communications. Kristin, thanks for all the laughs and good times!

HOSTAGES

Tuesday, January 27, 1981 signalled the arrival of the U.S. Hostages in Washington, D.C. To greet our heroes, many Oakcrest students and teachers travelled downtown to cheer them on. Not only was it a day filled with excitement and enthusiasm, but also patriotism. It was a day many of us will never forget.
